

Confirm what we found

Visa / status type

F-1

First entry date

09 / 14 / 2022

Passport number

X1333490

Before September 14, 2022, were you ever in the US on an F, J, M, or Q visa?

☐ Yes ☒ No

Are you a US lawful permanent resident (green card holder)?

☐ Yes ☒ No

During 2025, did you apply for, or take other affirmative steps to apply for, lawful permanent resident status in the United States?

☐ Yes ☒ No

← Back

Continue

Add 2 more questions in the eligibility, also please change the backend as well.

- 1. Have you ever changed your visa type? (if no can not support)
2. Ask if they “Did you earn income only while physically working/living in Washington?” (Yes, if no can not support)”

Foreign (home country) address

State/province (option)

Postal code

Country

Add street address in the profile page

Social Security Number

128973000

Did you receive, sell, or exchange any digital assets (crypto) this year?

Required on every return regardless of amount — includes receiving, selling, trading, or being paid in crypto. This is different from selling investments for a gain, which we'll ask about next.

☐ Yes ☒ No

When I fill up the SSN, can you auto xxx-xx-xxxx (add the '-'), as well as for ITIN.

Can you also move the did you receive sell or exchange ... question into the the interview page instead

A few questions about your year

Did you work in the US this year (on-campus, CPT, or OPT)?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Are you on OPT?

☒ Yes ☐ No

Did you receive a scholarship or fellowship?

☒ No

☐ Yes, it covered tuition only

☐ Yes, it covered tuition & living expenses

Did you earn any interest, dividends, or investment income in the US?

This is about income from investments, separate from the digital-assets question you already answered — check any that apply and we'll request the matching tax form.

☒ Bank interest (savings, CDs, high-yield accounts)

☒ Dividends

☒ Sold stocks, crypto, or other assets (for a gain or loss)

Did you make any charitable contributions (cash or check) to a US charity this year?

Enter 0 if none — this affects your itemized deduction.

Save

← Back

Continue

Add the question from the previous one, then also for the charitable contribution, can you just make it into normal question, and not having border like that.